

Biography of H.E. Mr. Raphael G.C Trotman; LLB; LEC; MP

Minister of Natural Resources of Republic of GUYANA, South America

- Minister Raphael Gregory Conwright Trotman spent much of his youthful years pursuing studies in Law, International Relations, Security, and Development Economics and has dedicated much of his adult life to serving his Country.
- His Academic Achievements include a Bachelor's degree in Law (LLB) from the University of the West Indies Cave Hill Campus, Barbados; Legal Education Certificate (LEC) from Hugh Wooding Law School in Trinidad and Tobago; a Master of Arts Degree in International Relations (Security & Development Economics) from the Fletcher School of Law & Diplomacy, Tufts University, USA; a post Graduate Certificate in Mediation from Harvard Law School, USA and a Post Graduate Certificate in Defense Planning & Resources Management from the National Defense University, USA.
- Minister Trotman began his professional life as an Attorney-at-law and Member of the Guyana Bar Association.
- His love for service and desire to make a difference led to his active participation in Politics.
- Minister Trotman served with the Georgetown Mayor and City Council from 1994-1998; as a Member of Parliament from 1998 to present day and during that period as Speaker of the National Assembly from 2012-2015.
- Hon. Raphael G.C Trotman has had a prolific Political Career with continued demonstration of Commitment to the Service of his Country.
- In May 2015 he became Minister of Governance, a position he held briefly before being reassigned as Minister of Natural Resources; a portfolio which allows him to not only serve but protect Guyana's Natural Patrimony.